

NATIONAL WHEATEN RESCUE, INC. TRANSFER AGREEMENT

National Wheaten Rescue, Inc. (NWR) is a nation-wide non-profit (501c3) organization recognized by the American Kennel Club to preserve and protect Soft Coated Wheaten Terriers. Occasionally a Wheaten may be unsuited to its current owners and a new permanent home is needed. NWR agrees to provide daily care including: food, water, shelter and veterinary care as needed while placement is sought.

The present owners, undersigned, agree to transfer ownership of their Soft Coated Wheaten Terrier and to relinquish all rights, the AKC Registration certificate, veterinary and other health records, and any additional information concerning the Wheaten to NWR.

It is understood that:

- 1) NWR will own the Wheaten prior to placement.
- 2) The Wheaten will first be evaluated over several days in a foster home to determine suitable placement.
- 3) NWR has full authority and intent to place the Wheaten in an appropriate permanent home without consent of the prior owner.
- 4) No guarantee can be made as to NWR's ability to place the Wheaten, and in some cases, euthanasia is necessary. This decision is to be made by NWR.
